MESSAGE

Dear Friends:

Our financial situation is very bad, we had this year so many problems with our plumbing system , broken pipes several times, some of those problems have not been fixed yet, we just shut the water off in certain areas of our building just to save some money for the time being in repairs but soon we have to correct those problems before winter gets here and therefore we will need hot water and heat our building and your generosity is desperately needed. Also I want to inform everyone the case in court against the Yeshiva that was occupying our building is not solved yet and the bill is just growing bigger and bigger as the days goes by and it is right now around $50.000 and I hope that will be solved in our favor very soon, and we will put all our efforts in repairs and continue ahead.

Your help is needed now more than ever before and your participation in our activities is very important to continue serving the community for many years to come. Any Ideas, comments and suggestions are welcome to help improve our Synagogue to continue for another 100years.

I want to wish everyone a Happy and Healthy new year and May Hashem inscribe and seal all of us and our families in the book of life, health and prosperity. Amen

Happy New Year 5773

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

A DAY OF ATONEMENT

The Talmud states (Tractate Yoma 85b) that Yom Kippur serves to atone for sins which man commits directly against Hashem. However, Yom Kippur does not atone for sins between man and his fellow until he has actually attained the forgiveness of the injured or insulted person.

On Yom Kippur we stand in judgment before Hashem and ask forgiveness for our sins. There is one group of sins, however, that permeates almost all of our activities for which no forgiveness is being offered. This is the area known as "bein adam l'chaveiro- between man and his fellow man," personal relationships, for which judgment is passed, but for which no atonement can be achieved until the wronged party is placated.

This is something which we often overlook. Many of us, as the masters of mussar (teachers of Jewish ethical values) have pointed out, are very careful concerning our relationship with Hashem. If we do something wrong, we truly regret having committed that sin. However, when it comes to our relationships with our fellow human beings it is a completely different story. As a great sage so appropriately stated, "We are extremely careful about what comes into our mouths, but not with what comes out." We do not realize that speaking against someone else is wrong. It is our way of life- everybody does it. What we must seriously understand and appreciate, especially on Yom Kippur, is that is the wrong attitude. Our relationships with our fellow human beings are just as important as our relationship with Hashem.

Let us try to make an effort in our dealings with each other to be more sensitive, kind and understanding. Through this merit, G-d will deal with us in similar manner.

I want to wish the entire Congregation a happy and healthy new Year.

Rabbi David Movsas
